

Master Rhee in Full Action

Master Rhee instructing at Grading Day

FATHER OF AUSTRALIAN TAE KWON DO

Master Rhee instructing junior member

Mr. Chong Chul Rhee, founder of Tae Kwon Do in Australia. The Master Instructor and Chief Instructor for Australia and New Zealand, he is also the President of the Tae Kwon Do Instructors' Federation of Australia and New Zealand.

Mr. Rhee acquired vast international experience before coming to Australia. He was a leading instructor of the Korean Marines, Police Force, students at universities and colleges and members of the public. Mr. Rhee developed and taught special unarmed combat methods to the Marine Commandos, the elite Commandoes' underwater demolition team, Marine Brigade Headquarters and Marino 2nd Infantry Divisions. (The Korean Marines earned a reputation as the world's most feared and courageous troops. Nicknamed "The Demon Hunter Marines", they were easily recognised on the battle fields and were the most disciplined, daring and highly efficient elite of the armed forces.)

Mr. Chong Chul Rhee then spent some years in South East Asia - including Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Brunei and other countries - spreading the Art of Tae Kwon Do. Tae Kwon Do is booming in these countries today and many thousands of students are reaping the benefits of Mr. Rhee's dedication to the Art. Since introducing the Art of Tae Kwon Do in Australia, - Mr. Chong Chul Rhee has led hundreds of demonstrations throughout the nation. He has demonstrated the Art at universities, colleges, Air Force bases, Army and Police academies.

Master Chong Chul Rhee, Father of Australian Taekwondo, in action!

Master Rhee & Graham Healy